

St. Paul the Apostle and Immaculate Conception Churches

Graced by the constant, loving presence of God - Father, Son and Holy Spirit - in our lives, energized by the intercession of Mary and the great Communion of Saints, and grounded in the Sacred Scripture, Tradition, Catholic Teaching, Sacrament and Prayer, we, parishioners of St. Paul the Apostle Parish, reach out to embrace all of God's children, encouraging them to receive the gift of eternal salvation, accept Jesus Christ as their Lord, and follow in his footsteps. We declare our solidarity with the poor of the world, and pledge to help them by sharing our love and bounty.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

The value of money.

Those who believe that money will do everything, may very well be suspected to do everything for money. — George Savile, Marquis of Halifax († 1695)

Prior to the start of the Second World War, the Nazi regime in Germany instituted a scheme for forcing Jewish citizens to emigrate, but only after extorting from them all of their wealth. One of the members of the Zionist Relief and Rescue Committee commented, “A Jew who trembles for his life and that of his family loses all sense of the value money.” In quoting this remark, Hannah Arendt follows it with an exclamation mark in parentheses. What, after all, is the value of money in comparison to the value of life and liberty? However, I now understand better what was meant. The Jews in Europe were survivors. They often lived on the margins of society, and they were subject to constant prejudice and persecution. Holding on to a store of wealth was a sheer matter of survival.

In Akira Kurasawa's classic film The Seven Samurai, a village is pillaged by a gang of bandits who leave them barely enough to live on. The Samurai warriors who come to help them are appalled that the villagers are getting by on a meagre diet of barley and beans. However, when the bandits are eventually defeated, the villagers bring out of hiding enough food for a feast. One of the Samurai comments that these peasants always keep something hidden away. Again, this is how the powerless survive. It is literally the difference between life and death.

As Christians we also should know the value of money — not for its own sake, but for the good that it can do. In the 16th century, St. Teresa of Avila instituted a reform of the Carmelite Order in Spain. She insisted that her convents be established in poverty, that is, without any source of income. They were to subsist solely on donations from the local community. It was a litigious age, and she was often plagued by lawsuits, which caused considerable distress. In one of her letters, she expresses her relief when one of these lawsuits is finally settled:

I now have to raise two hundred ducats that I promised Montoya, the lawyer, for he has given us life, and please God that amount will be enough and bring all this to an end. It is a great mercy that money can play a role in the attainment of so much peace.

As her best translator E. Allison-Peers noted: “There is no life more real than the interior life of the soul; there is no one who has a firmer hold on reality than St. Teresa.” St. Teresa embraced poverty, but she knew the value of money.

St. Augustine said that in this world we need to clearly distinguish between what is to be used, and what is to be loved. Wealth is meant to be used for the benefit of those people whom we love. In we can keep that distinction straight, we will find that, as St. Teresa says, money can at times be ‘a great mercy.’

Saint of the Week:

Do not abandon yourselves to despair. We are the Easter people and hallelujah is our song. - Pope John Paul II (1920-2005), Patron of World Youth Day, Feast Day October 22

S.H.I.F.T. (Support and Hope for Individuals and Families Today)

S.H.I.F.T. is the new name for our local Shelter. Same vital mission, just different name! It will be opening its doors again this winter in order to provide accommodation and meals beginning November 1.

St. Paul the Apostle Church has pledged that they will provide a meal every Monday evening. Since dinner begins at 5:00pm the meal should be delivered by 4:40pm. Nothing complicated is needed - suggested is a one pot dish; something like a casserole, a pot of chili, or a hearty soup. No need to worry about fancy touches; just plain, simple but nourishing food. It should already be cooked and preferably hot.

We need your help! Please consider signing-up for one of the Mondays.

Please contact: Martha Whelton 705-435-0991
 Or email: me.whelton@sympatico.ca

World Mission Sunday – October 23/24

There will be a second collection today for the Evangelization of the Nations, otherwise known as World Mission Sunday. This is a worldwide collection for the missionary Church and it is our opportunity to assist at-need Catholic communities around the globe. Our offerings are combined with those of other Catholics around the world and distributed to missions and dioceses. We are called to share from our abundance with those who are less fortunate and lack the basic essentials to know, love and praise God. Thank you for your support of this important work.

Living the Gospel by supporting seminarians

We must pray for good and holy priests. But we must also ensure they are equipped with an excellent educational and spiritual formation, which is why your gift to ShareLife supports St. Augustine's Seminary. The future of our Church, and the essential pastoral care provided by our priests, depends on our generosity.

October 31 is the next ShareLife Sunday. Please give generously during the special collection or anytime at sharelife.org.
