Saint of the Week-

He conquered death, broke the gates of hell, won for Himself a people to be His co-heirs, lifted flesh from corruption up to the glory of eternity.
- St. Hilary (315-367), Doctor of the Church, Feast Day January 13

From the desk of Father Norberto

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany at the beginning of this New Year, the Church invites us to contemplate a beautiful truth: God reveals Himself to all peoples and continues to guide those who sincerely seek Him. The Magi, guided by a star, set out on a journey filled with questions, risks, and uncertainty. They did not have a complete map, yet they trusted the light given to them. Their journey speaks deeply to us today as individuals, as families, and especially as a parish community standing at a significant moment in our history.

This year is particularly meaningful as we begin both a new calendar year and the celebration of our 150th year as a parish. For one hundred and fifty years, this parish has been a place where God's light has been made visible—through prayer, the sacraments, service to the poor, and the faithful witness of countless parishioners. Many came before us with little more than faith and perseverance. They faced hardships, wars, economic struggles, and cultural changes, yet they continued to trust that God was present and active in their lives. Because of their fidelity, we are here today.

Epiphany reminds us that faith is always a journey. The Magi did not stay where they were; they moved. In the same way, our parish is called not simply to celebrate the past, but to move forward with courage and hope. As we honor 150 years of grace, we must also ask: Where is God leading us now? What new paths is the Spirit inviting us to take so that Christ may be revealed more clearly in our time?

As we enter this New Year, we are aware of the challenges before us. Like many parishes, we face changing demographics, fewer active volunteers, financial responsibilities, and the task of engaging younger generations and those who feel distant from the Church. These realities can sometimes feel overwhelming. Yet Epiphany teaches us that God often reveals Himself precisely in moments of uncertainty. The star did not remove Magi's difficulties; it gave them direction. In the same way, God does not promise an easy path, but He does promise His presence.

Alongside these challenges there are many opportunities. This anniversary year invites us to renew our commitment to prayer, deepen our sense of belonging, and rediscover our mission as a parish. It is an opportunity to strengthen our families, to welcome newcomers, to reach out to those who are hurting or forgotten, and to be a visible sign of God's love in our community. It is also a chance to invite new leaders to step forward and to share their gifts, ensuring that our parish remains vibrant and alive.

The Magi, upon finding Christ, offered their gifts and then "returned home by another way." Encountering Christ always changes us. As we celebrate Epiphany and begin this historic year, may we, too, offer our best to the Lord—our time, talents, resources, and hearts. And may we be willing to walk "by another way," allowing God to transform how we live, serve, and love.

As your pastor, I am deeply grateful for your faith, your generosity, and your dedication to this parish. Together, guided by the Light of Christ, let us continue the journey begun 150 years ago, confident that the same God who led our ancestors will lead us forward.

May the Light of Epiphany shine upon our parish throughout this New Year and for generations to come.

With prayers and hope,

Fr. Norberto A. Eyule
