Saint of the week

Because the soul has such deep roots in personal and social life and its values run so contrary to modern concerns, caring for the soul may well turn out to be a radical act, a challenge to accepted norms.

- St Thomas Moore (1478-1886), Priest, Patron of Difficult Marriages, Feast Day June 23

From the desk of Father Norberto

Dear Parishioners,

As we celebrate Father’s Day, we give thanks to God for the precious gift of fathers and all who exercise a fatherly role in our lives. Today is an opportunity to honor the men who have loved, guided, protected, and sacrificed for their families, often in quiet and unseen ways.

Fatherhood is a sacred vocation entrusted by God. A father is called not only to provide for the physical needs of his family but also to nurture their spiritual, emotional, and moral growth. Through his example, a father teaches his children the values of faith, integrity, compassion, and perseverance. In a world that often lacks strong and virtuous role models, the witness of a loving and faithful father is more important than ever.

As Christians, we look to St. Joseph, the foster father of Jesus, as the model of authentic fatherhood. Although he was not the biological father of Jesus, God entrusted to him the care of the Holy Family. Joseph embraced this responsibility with remarkable faith, humility, courage, and obedience. Sacred Scripture records no spoken words from St. Joseph, yet his actions speak volumes. He protected Mary and Jesus, worked diligently to provide for them, listened attentively to God’s guidance, and faithfully carried out his mission.

St. Joseph reminds us that true fatherhood is not measured by authority or power but by selfless love and sacrificial service. He teaches fathers to lead not by domination but by example; not by seeking recognition but by faithfully fulfilling their responsibilities. In a culture that often celebrates success and achievement, St. Joseph shows us the beauty of quiet fidelity and steadfast love.

Today we honor not only fathers but also grandfathers, stepfathers, foster fathers, godfathers, uncles, mentors, teachers, coaches, and priests who have exercised a fatherly influence in the lives of others. Their guidance and support have helped many experience the love and care of God.

We also remember with gratitude those fathers who have gone before us into eternal life. May the Lord reward them for their sacrifices and welcome them into His heavenly kingdom. We pray as well for those who find this day difficult—those grieving the loss of a father, those experiencing broken relationships, and those who desire to be fathers but have not received that blessing. May God’s comfort and peace embrace them.

The source of all fatherhood is our Heavenly Father, whose love never fails. He continually guides, protects, forgives, and provides for His children. May all fathers draw strength from Him and seek His wisdom in fulfilling their vocation.

As a parish family, let us pray for all fathers. Through the intercession of St. Joseph, may they be blessed with strong faith, loving hearts, wisdom in decision-making, courage in adversity, and joy in their families. May they always know how deeply they are loved and appreciated.

To all fathers and father figures in our parish, thank you for your generosity, sacrifices, and witness of love. May God bless you abundantly today and throughout the year.

Happy Father’s Day!

In Christ,

Fr. Norberto Eyule

Pastor

To all Fathers grandfathers, father figures.....
