

There is no capacity limit for places of worship. However, physical distancing of 6 feet is still required between parishioners attending mass who are not from the same household.

Due to the physical distancing requirements most churches will not realize any significant increase in capacity.

In step 3, local municipal by-laws remain in place – mask use indoors is to continue at this time.

We cannot accommodate everyone on Sunday, you can still attend daily masses during the week, and this would satisfy the Sunday obligation until the last restrictions are lifted.

The elderly with compromised immune systems or other health conditions are strongly encouraged to remain home and continue watching televised masses on TV.

Updated July 15th, 2021